

Here at Ensemble, it's plain and simple, we make software – and it's clear that our employees are the ones who make each of our projects a success. We're proud of what we do, and we're committed to giving you the correct tools to do your job, and do it well.

Ensemble is currently on the lookout for individuals who are passionate about technical writing and how important technical documentation is to the client experience. If you are then we invite you to apply as a Technical Writer with Ensemble.

Qualified candidates will join Ensemble with:

- A clear and friendly writing style
- Basic ability to read and understand code, preferably Java
- Experience with RESTful APIs
- Experience with the following technologies: JSON, XML, and Metadata
- Understand basic document versioning concepts and best practices
- Comfortable using plain-text editors to author in Markdown
- Ability to work independently, but also able to collaborate with other writers and developers with a positive attitude

Some responsibilities will include:

- Design, write and edit technical documentation for hypermedia-based APIs, services and platforms
- Work closely with engineering, product and support teams to ensure the quality, discoverability and accuracy of the content you create
- Create and maintain code sample snippets and sample workflows to demonstrate usage
- Contribute to continuous improvement of documentation standards, tools, and processes
- Work within an Agile development environment, using tools such as JIRA to track and plan documentation work

Along with a keen desire to succeed, we are searching for individuals who enjoy working in a collaborative team environment. If you have excellent communication and time management skills, paired with a winning attitude and an unparalleled work ethic, then you would be a good fit for Ensemble - we want to hear from you.

More About Ensemble:

At Ensemble, we believe in supporting a healthy work/life balance for all employees, which is why we offer flexible working hours. We also host regular social events such as monthly birthday lunches, the annual Christmas party, summer family barbeques, Halloween costume competitions, ping pong matches, gaming nights, and company-paid fitness/sporting activities, and more.

Over the course of our 24 years in business, we have built a strong company foundation, with each of the core members of our management team having been with the company for an average of 18 years. We also aim to promote from within first to ensure that we retain our greatest asset – our employees.

Our work environment encourages collaboration, productivity, and growth. If you share our values and want to help Ensemble grow, apply today.
